A Word on Camp Meeting

The Oregon camp meeting that has convened this week, closes with tonight's meeting. For more than 100 years, the Seventh-day Adventists have been conducting camp meetings. These convocations, held annually, are spiritual renewal gatherings for members and their guests. The event is filled with seminars and sermons that teach biblical principles, healthier lifestyles, and practical living principles. Every year Adventists in the Oregon Conference gather at the Gladstone Camp Grounds south of Portland for five days of spiritual renewal, inspiration, and praise.
