

Sunnyside Adventist Church Communiqué

News & Announcements

Sabbath, June 30, 2018

Dear Family,

This Sabbath we will be sharing Communion together and so this week I have been reflecting on that last supper that Jesus shared with His disciples before facing the cross. As He took the wash bowl and towel in hand, He did so with the knowledge of not only who was already faltering of His betrayer's actions during the past little while, but also what lay ahead. Who would remain at the foot of the cross and who would not. And in that awareness He loved. As He took Judas' feet in His hands, as He knelt before John, He gave no differentiation in the care that He took. As He passed the bread to Peter, He did so with genuine love. He revealed to us a heart that sees beyond, that loves through the pain. He did so willingly. The love was not taken from Him, forced out of Him. No one bullied Him into it. He gave it willingly.

Father,
Thank you for that love that you continue to lavish on us.
We give you our hearts, asking for cleansing, healing and renewal. Thank you for hearing our prayer.

Pastor Kara Johnsson
