

Sunnyside Adventist Church Communiqué

News & Announcements

Sabbath, July 28, 2018

Greetings church family,

For the last week or so Shirley and I have been in the company of my nearly-five-year-old granddaughter and her other grandparents – an unusual privilege to say the least! For Zara it has also been this rare window of two weeks in her life with four grandparents “all to herself!” It has been a wonderful and wonder-filled family time.

For me it has been a change in perspective to almost constantly seeing the world from a five-year-old point of view. I can assure you that Camp Meeting 2018 was very different for me as I immersed myself in the Beaver tent. I fed more rabbits and ducks. I watch and enjoy the burgeoning of a phenomenal sense of humor. I am faced with questions that go straight to the core of my theology.

It reminds me that when we attempt to be a church family and try to be relevant as we interact with one another, how important it is to see the world from another person's perspective. It reminds me of the incarnational ministry of Jesus. I am always challenged and stimulated by my grandchildren.

Blessings to you as you let God take you into another person's journey. It is a good way of being Church. It may even help to make our conversation more civil and helpful...

...Happy Sabbath.

Pastor Dave Allen
