

Sunnyside Adventist Church Communiqué

News & Announcements

Sabbath, September 29, 2018

Greetings church family,

Last week I had the privilege of visiting with Jack Betz on the occasion of his 97th birthday. As we meet in this Sunnyside Church facility from week to week, we don't often recall that it was Jack, his son Ray, and Frank Reynolds who were the core building team producing this place we call Sunnyside Seventh-day Adventist Church. As I greeted Jack, his firm grip was as strong as ever. Those hands had built my church!

Tomorrow, during our second service, Jack's great-grandson, Mack, will be dedicated to the Lord. He will be in the company of his parents, Kirk and Christine Betz, grandparents, family, and friends.

It is rare that we can formally acknowledge four generations of a family as a living part of our Sunnyside Church Family.

We are blessed.

Happy Sabbath.

Pastor Dave Allen
