News & Announcements

Sabbath, February 9, 2019

Dear Family,

This week I celebrated my 3rd 'American Anniversary'; three years since I stepped off that plane and embraced a new city, a new country, a new job and place to call home. It is my tradition on that particular day, to get up early, find my way down to the same coffee shop that I discovered on my first morning here, and take a moment or two to reflect on the journey; the highs and lows, the blessings, the growth and more than anything, to remember God's faithfulness. I look forward to that marker each year.

As I think about the Sabbath, it has a similar role in my life. On Sabbath mornings I like to get up early, make myself a hot drink, and again spend a moment or two remembering God's goodness to me, his sovereignty as Creator and Redeemer, his faithfulness.

It can be easy to let the rush of life sweep away these precious moments, the markers, the spiritual disciplines that keep us grounded and connected. I encourage you to carve out that time - whatever it may be for you - that keeps you connected to what matters most.

Looking forward to worshipping with you as always,

Pastor Kara Johnson
