SUNNYSIDE

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

January 10 Communiqué

Hi Sunnyside Church!

The first week of the year has arrived, and our students are back to their regular school routines.

Life has returned to its pre-holiday patterns. These steady rhythms can be our friends or our quiet adversaries: they can work slowly and surely toward our well-being, or just as subtly against it. This is why the beginning of a new year feels so appealing for making resolutions—whether spiritual, physical, emotional, relational, or financial. As we step into reflection and commit to practical next steps, it's deeply helpful to remember that God is on our side. He is intentionally working on our behalf, making all the resources of heaven available to us. This is true not only in a spiritual sense, but also through His providence and down-to-earth wisdom for every area of our lives.

It is exciting to witness how His transformative and empowering presence begins to penetrate more and more compartments of our lives as we allow Him in. And as we face the inevitable challenges of life, we can always count on His unconditional love and faithful presence.

I am grateful to those of you who know this reality through lived experience, and I'm thankful for your commitment to walk alongside others who are journeying toward wholeness with compassion and grace.

Looking ahead, I'm excited for the resumption of choir rehearsals on January 15, the Cake and Pie Contest at the end of January, and I want to bring to your attention our annual International Sabbath and Food Fest on February 28—so you have plenty of time to experiment with new costumes and recipes!

My prayers are with those whose hearts are grieving and those whose bodies and spirits are healing.

Pastor Violeta Bilan
