SUNNYSIDE

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

February 14 Communiqué

Hi Sunnyside Church Family,

Today is Valentine's Day. It is hard not to notice, with pink and red decorations, flowers, and chocolates lining the area near the checkout counter at your local grocery store.

Earlier this week, I returned to the States after spending time in Australia. Summers in Australia are hotter than the are here, and the day after I arrived, the temperature in Melbourne reached 114 F or 44 C! But, I was not visiting simply to escape a PNW winter; the main reason for my visit was to attend the wedding of one of my closest friend: whom I have known since grade 8. Watching her love story unfold over the years was a beautiful reminder of how joyful love can be.

I love love. I love attending weddings. I love seeing friends get married. Every wedding reminds me that the most inspiring human love points to a greater story: God's love for us.

God's love is unconditional, sacrificial, and unchanging. It pursues us, carries us through every season, and never depends on anything we do to earn it.

This Valentine's Day, may we remember that every love we celebrate—every friendship, marriage, and act of kindness is a reflection of the greatest love story: Jesus' unwavering love for us, a Savior who chose us, pursued us, and gave Himself for us.

"Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." John 15:13

We are grateful for our senior ministries team who are hosting a Valentine's Day dinner tomorrow.

No matter your plans today, remember that you are deeply loved. Distance, time, and circumstances cannot separate us from God's heart.

With love,

Pastor Rose Andrykanus

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please pray for the following families:

† Doug DeBoer passed away January 26, 2026. AQ memorial service will be conducted for him on Sunday, February 22, 2026, 16 11:00 am, in the Fellowship Hall.

† Lou Wildman passed away on December 21, 2025. A Celebration of Life service will be conducted here at Sunnyside Church Sunday, March 8, 2026, at 2:00 pm, including the OAMC choir with music for the service. A light reception will follow.

The people of Sunnyside are the mission-minded people who lead the many ministries of Sunnyside. They respond to the call of the church to serve. The selection of leaders is a process yes—but here it's accomplished carefully, democratically, and efficiently. The process began again last week. We are extending it by one week to include more ballots. Some of you may not have been here last week. A ballot is included in your bulletin on which you may nominate one member of the church to serve on the Committee to Select the Nominating Committee (otherwise known as the Selection Committee). Your vote counts! Ballots may be dropped in the offering plate or handed to a deacon. The Selection Committee for 2026 will be elected on February 21, with a report to be included in the February 28 bulletin.

Happy Sabbath PAA Family,

Cougars Bring Heart & Hustle to Friendship Tournament

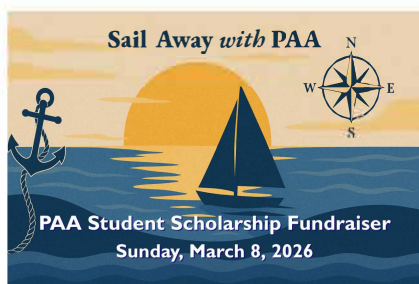

Each January, the Friendship Tournament at Walla Walla University brings together schools from across the Northwest for a weekend where competition and community go hand in hand. This year, our Cougars varsity boys and girls basketball teams stepped into this staple tournament ready to compete and represent our school with pride. On the court, both teams rose to the challenge. The girls played with poise and determination, leaning on teamwork and resilience in every matchup, finishing third in their bracket. The boys brought intensity and focus throughout the weekend, pairing strong effort with disciplined play and earning a fourth-place overall finish. In every game, the Cougars showed they belonged on the floor. What stood out most, however, went beyond the scoreboard. Our students encouraged one another, showed respect to officials, and connected well with other teams throughout the tournament. Coaches and spectators alike noticed the character, sportsmanship, and unity our Cougars displayed. We are deeply grateful to the coaches, parents, and friends who traveled, cheered, and invested countless hours into supporting our athletes. Your presence and encouragement matter more than you know. The Friendship Tournament more than a series of games, it's a tradition that reminds us why we play. Our Cougars returned home stronger, more connected, and proud to have represented our school well, both on and off the court.

Black History Month Begins in Chapel This past Tuesday, our chapel space became a place of listening, learning, and gratitude as a panel of Black students shared their voices in honor of Black History Month. This gathering marked the first of three chapels where Black history will be intentionally remembered and celebrated in our community. Rather than a lecture, the chapel felt like a conversation, one marked by honesty, courage, and deep personal reflection. Students on the panel spoke about why Black History Month still matters today. They shared stories shaped by family faith, and lived experience. Moments of pride, moments of struggle, and moments where they felt seen and supported. Their words invited the room to slow down and truly listen, reminding us that history is not distant, but something that continues to shape our lives and relationships. Throughout the panel, a common thread emerged: gratitude for God who creates each person with intention and dignity. The students pointed us toward a faith that celebrates diversity, calls us to empathy, and invites us to love one another well. Their reflections uplifted not only the stories of the past, but the hope of who we are becoming as a community. It was a chapel that challenged us, encouraged us, and reminded us of the beauty of listening to one another, an important step in honoring history and living out our faith today.
