SUNNYSIDE

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

March 14 Communiqué

Hi Sunnyside Church,

I am so grateful for the PAES International food night last Thursday where we were able to raise some much needed funds through the sale of food. A number of Sunnysiders came out, and we had a booth next to our sister church: Healing Hope.

Altogether we raised over $300 for the school! A huge thank you to Eyerusalem Fanta and her wonderful team of ladies who took us straight to Ethiopia with a "Beyaynetu," a traditional Ethiopian (and Eritrean) platter with an assortment of stews, curries, and vegetables served on a large piece of injera bread. It was deeeelicious!

Our long awaited training with Linda Schaffner is happening this weekend. We have quite a few people signed up from across different parts of church life, which is really encouraging to see. If you enjoyed her Sabbath message, you are invited to stay in the afternoon (1:30 pm in the Sandy Room) for part two of her talk, "Strategies and Tools for Inclusive Ministry." She will be sharing practical tools, classroom strategies, and real life examples to help leaders and volunteers make sure every child feels welcome. It will be a really valuable session for those who attend.

After visiting the swimming pool yesterday, our Pathfinders are out in God's creation enjoying the snow today. They have been getting ready for their annual Pathfinder Sabbath next week. Please come along and show your support for our up and coming leaders. I will also be sharing the message, so I would love to see you there.

"What a Friend We Have in Jesus" has come to mind a few times during my week. I am guessing you might already be humming the tune in your head. The hymn was written by Joseph M. Scriven to comfort his ailing mother, and also after he experienced the heartbreak of losing two fiancées. If you ever have a moment to look up the story behind it, is really quite moving. May these words encourage you this week:

"What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer
Oh what peace we often forfeit
Oh what needless pain we bear
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer."

Pastor Rose Andrykanus

Shout-Out

A special shoutout to our current greeters! Thank you for your diligence in greeting people each week. You are very much appreciated!

We are in need of more greeters, so that others can have a break now and then! If you would like to help and be placed on the schedule contact either the church office at 502-252-8080, or Shawna Rentschler directly.

UPDATE to Students Lead a Powerful Week of Worship at PAA

We are thrilled to share that at the end of February's Student Week of Worship, students were invited to make decisions for Christ, and many stepped forward in meaningful ways.

Twenty-five students expressed a desire to seek or learn more about baptism. Twelve students decided to join Camp Ministries, and twenty-three students shared that they want to be part of a Praise Team. Ten students signed up to join our Prayer Team, and twenty-one students said they want to be more involved in their local church. These numbers represent real students taking real steps of faith. In the coming weeks, Pastor Fernando will follow up with students individually and help connect them with their local and youth pastors so they can be supported and disciplined within their home church communities. We are grateful to see how God is moving in the hearts of our students. To see the original Pulse go to: <https://www.paasda.org/post/students-lead-a-powerful-week-of-worship-at-paa>.

PAA Choir Students Shine at Oregon Small Schools Invitational

On Tuesday morning, all 61 members of the PAA choir stepped onto the stage to represent their school at the Oregon Small Schools Choir Invitational. It was the first time in many years that PAA has participated in OSAA state choir events, and our students rose to the moment with focus, confidence, and heart. Dressed in full concert attire, the choir performed four pieces with excellence, pouring their energy and preparation into every note. Noemi and Makayla shared beautiful solo performances. The students' dedication and teamwork were evident throughout the performance, and the adjudicators offered very positive feedback along with thoughtful comments to help them continue growing. Choir members also had the opportunity to listen to other schools perform, including choirs from 1A and 5A programs. The experience gave students a chance to learn, reflect, and be inspired by other young musicians from across the state. They received the event rating of Excellent, a recognition of the quality and effort they brought to the stage. Dr. Carter shared how proud he was of the students for their focus and commitment, especially after months of anticipation leading up to the performance. More importantly, the experience strengthened the students' desire to keep singing with excellence, joy, and passion. As they continue to grow in their musical gifts, our choir students are using their voices not only to create beautiful music, but also to reflect the joy and creativity God has placed within them.

Have a wonderful weekend.

We have lots of fun and exciting jobs ranging from customer-facing cashiers and greeters to pricers and truck drivers behind the scenes. No experience or age requirements to volunteer, we're happy to train you and welcome the entire family! If you're interested, please contact our volunteer manager, Jaclyn, at Jaclyn.russell@pacsonline.org or call 503-252-8500 x1130.

Housing Needed

- Room needed for a male, hopefully close to TriMet availability.
- Also a mother and daughter are looking for space available.

If you can help us with either of these needs, please contact the church office at 503-252-8080 or info@sunnysideadventist.org.
