SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

March 7 Communiqué

Hello, Sunnyside family!

The first week of March is here, and with it comes the gentle promise of spring—budding flowers, longer days, and a quiet reminder that new life is always finding its way in.

This Sunday, the world marks International Women's Day, and I'd love for us to pause and celebrate the women of our church family—bright and beautiful, faithful and funny, courageous and caring. You bring such a rich variety of gifts and energy, along with joy, wisdom, and a deep sense of steadiness in a fast-spinning world. Thank you for who you are and for your consistent presence, engagement, and partnership that help weave the vibrant tapestry of our shared life.

This Sabbath, we are grateful to welcome Bethany King, a long-time friend of Sunnyside, who will be leading us in the Word. We are thankful for her continued connection with our church family and for her compassionate ministry beyond the borders of our country.

Next Sabbath, Linda Schaffner will be with us to present Created to Belong, a series focused on education and advocacy for safe, inclusive spaces for children with special needs. We look forward to learning together and growing in understanding and care. We are also entering the season of nominating committee work. I invite you to prayerfully consider where God may be calling you to serve in the coming season. May God grant you the courage to recognize your gifts, trust your vision, and step forward with openness and hope as we continue the work of the church together.

I am deeply grateful to everyone who participated in our International Sabbath events. Your presence, time, and care created a meaningful and beautiful experience—one that reflects the heart of Sunnyside and our shared commitment to God's kingdom vision.

Finally, my prayers are especially with those in our community who are struggling or healing, and with all people of goodwill who, day by day, contribute to the dignity, compassion, and maturity of our human family.

With gratitude and hope,

Pastor Violeta Bilan
