SUNNYSIDE

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

April 4 Communiqué

Hello, Sunnyside Family and Friends,

New beginnings often arrive quietly. Sometimes they come through hope. Sometimes through pain. We know the rhythm: the heaviness of dark Fridays, the quiet grief of Saturdays, and the way our hearts lift at resurrection Sundays – when what once seemed lost begins to live again.

Even when our hopes feel shaken, even when our plans scatter, there's a deeper vision waiting for us. Not one shaped by circumstances, but by God's steady presence and unchanging promises. Here at Sunnyside, we gather to celebrate that reality. God's grace carries us through the cold seasons – those stretches when the way forward isn't yet clear. His Spirit lifts us from darkness into light.

Today, we lean into the joy of Christ's victory – the humble Lamb who has overcome death, separation, and fear. This is the truth we hold: Christ is risen. He is alive.

Alive in us.

And He is guiding us, step by step, toward new beginnings.

After the service, we hope you'll stay to share Easter potluck. The table has always been where resurrection gets lived out in the everyday – in conversation, in community, in the simple joy of breaking bread together. There's something about sharing a meal that reminds us: life is richer when we celebrate it together.

This Easter, may you feel God's presence in every shadow and every light. May your heart be renewed, and may the joy of resurrection fill you – today and always.

Pastor Violeta Bilan
