

July 25 Communiqué

Hi Sunnysiders,

It was so lovely to see many of you at camp meeting last week!

I had the privilege of co-leading the Trailblazers (8-10 year olds) tent, which was located in the amphitheater area of camp. We were blessed to have several Sunnysiders serving alongside us. Vesper was a crew leader, Tiffany helped with registrations, and Paul shared some fascinating astrophysics presentations during our morning sessions.

Each morning also began with some fun “badge” giveaways, and one highlight was watching young Emma recite even book of the Old Testament from memory – to the surprise and delight of her fellow trailblazers!

Throughout the week, we placed a special emphasis on prayer, both before our meetings and during the morning programs. Our pastors shared about the beauty of talking with Jesus and the power of intercessory prayer.

I was leading the activity rotations, and at the end of one of the prayer rotations, a boy named Chase came up to thank one of our pastors for the message. He shared that he had already given his life to Jesus, but that he wanted to give his life to Him again that day.

As Chase began to walk away to go to his next activity with his group, he suddenly turned, locked eyes with the pastor leading the activity and said, “I just want you to know that God loves you so much!” It was a profound moment. This pastor shared that it was like this young boy was listening to the prompting of the Holy Spirit inside of him.

I’m sure there are countless camp meeting stories like this, and I look forward to hearing how you encountered Jesus this past week.

Now that the whirlwind of camp has settled, I thought it was fitting to share a message on rest this coming Sabbath

Blessings,

Pastor Rose Andrykanus
